

RIGGER CERTIFICATE

The International Slackline Association confirms that _____ is a certified RIGGER, as outlined in the ISA requirements for official ISA riggers.

This includes sufficiency in the practices of:

gear knowledge
safe public rigging
advanced risk assessment for athletes and visitors advanced hazard avoidance highline rescue - highline rescue planning environmental preservation

The certification was acquired on _____

The status of RIGGER is awarded for 3 years and must be renewed after this term according to the ISA statutes.

President, ISA

President, ISA Safety Commission